THE NEW LEXUS RX

When you've had success, it's tempting to rest on your laurels. But that's not how the RX is built. From the distinctive new grille to its Apple CarPlay® support for your iPhone®, the RX has been redesigned inside and out. It's also the most connected RX yet, now with Android Auto™, Amazon Alexa compatibility and an available 12.3-inch touchscreen. The whole RX family features enhanced handling and a smoother ride, from the fuel-efficient and high-performance hybrid to the available F-SPORT and the RXL with third-row seating. Always refining, always reinventing. Some things never change.

Sarah Marshall:

Sarah Marshall is a native of Mobile, AL. She graduated from UMS-Wright Preparatory School in 2003 and received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from the University of Virginia in 2007. Sarah Marshall moved to Washington, DC after graduation to begin her nursing career in pediatrics at Georgetown University Hospital. She was drawn to pediatric oncology as a result of her own history with childhood cancer and treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. After 2 years in pediatric oncology, she trained to work in the pediatric intensive care unit at Georgetown. In 2017, Sarah Marshall and her husband, Ben Thompson, moved to Mobile with their son, Edward. She worked at USA Children's and Women's Hospital in the PICU until giving birth to their daughter, Sally, in December of 2018. Ben and Sarah Marshall are members of St. Ignatius Church and enjoy spending time with their children and friends, and engaging in ways to give back to the community

Megan Arendall:

Megan Gunter Arendall is a native of Mobile, AL., where she attended high school at UMS-Wright Preparatory School. She graduated Cum Laude from the University of Alabama in 2005 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Early Childhood Human Sciences. After graduation, Megan moved to Washington, D.C. where she worked for the Children's Defense Fund, a child advocacy organization, and Symphonic Strategies, a consulting firm. In 2013, Megan returned home to Mobile where she worked at Distinguished Young Women as their Marketing and Communications Director for two years. She is currently the Director of Client Relationships for Symphonic Strategies, the Washington, D.C. based consulting firm. Megan is married to Drayton Arendall, who is also a Mobile native. The couple have two children, Drayton, Jr. (age 3) and Frances (age 1). Megan and Drayton are members of Dauphin Way Methodist Church, and outside of work, she loves to spend time with her family and friends. Megan has also had the honor of serving on the Mitchell Cancer Institute's Celebrate Hope Committee and was a member of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Leadership Class of 2015.

FEATURED ARTIST

Kelley Ogburn

American artist Kelley Ogburn is best known for her figurative and floral compositions, combining gestural lines and raw mark-making with simple washes of color and bold strokes. In these moments of creation, Kelley addresses the whole of life — acknowledging struggle, but further noting its balance by beauty — challenging the viewer to fully accept all that life brings.

Kelley's desire to create was cultivated from a young age when she first began to take regular art classes. Though it was while studying in the advanced placement art program during high school that she developed her love for gesture drawing and the contour line — still prevalent in her work today. She went on to earn her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Auburn University where she further explored different forms of mark making and the human response to them.

Exhibiting mainly in the southeastern United States, Kelley's work exists in collections throughout the country and in private collections internationally. She has shown as a featured artist in Neiman Marcus, and was selected to be the featured artist for the Grand Summer Ball and the Festival of Flowers. Kelley currently lives and works in Fairhope, Alabama.

How we save lives, celebrate lives and lead the fight for a world without cancer.

A few examples of how we're making an impact in South Alabama:

- We have identified transportation as one of the most significant barriers to accessing and completing cancer treatment. Through our Road to Recovery program, we have awarded Community Transportation Grants across the state, including grants to USA Mitchell Cancer Institute, Infirmary Cancer Care and Southern Cancer Care totaling $25,000. Last year in Alabama, we provided 5,155 rides to and from treatment through Community Transportation Grants and 653 rides through volunteer-driven Road to Recovery.
- The American Cancer Society is one of the most trusted sources of cancer information and resources in the world. We are continually updating our website, cancer.org, with the latest information and guidance on COVID-19 for cancer patients in addition to news, prevention recommendations, and local programs and services. Last year, an estimated 680,700 people in Alabama visited cancer.org for answers to these and other cancer-related questions. Also, our Cancer Information Specialists are here to help day and night at 1.800.227.2345 with assistance on cancer-specific questions and even navigating health insurance systems. Last year, more than 7,200 people in Alabama received personalized guidance from ACS staff and partners.
- We know that the most significant developments in the fight against cancer are the results of research and we are currently funding 8 cancer research grants in Alabama, totaling over $4 million. The success of our research grant program is exemplified by the fact that 49 American Cancer Society-funded researchers have received a Nobel prize for their work.
